Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But Established for the Benefit of All,

SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1893.

Somebody should coach the new chum of the Star. He treads roughly on the toes of his friends. Very severe on them is his suggestion in yesterday's edition that opposition to military expenditure comes from a class that armed force is needed to suppress. He should turn to the files of the Advertiser at the time of last session of the Legislature, to find criticism of a military appropriation for two years which would not last the Provisional Government five months. The Star's present backers were then playing the role of the Buchanan administration before the war. It was part of their scheme of revolution.

This issue contains an original poem by Mr. Ralph Turner, whose fame as a writer of prose and verse is greater in California than here where he lives. No local periodical has reached a stage where it can afford to pay for regular contributions of purely literary matter, and where such a man as Mr. Turner's market is there must his mark be sought. He has had printed many creditable productions in tales, poems and sketches in leading papers of the Coast, and we understand that he is soon to attempt a stroke of considerable ambition in the literary field. It is no small credit to this aspiring author that his best work is done in snatches of time between his hours of toil at his mechanical craft, he being a turner by trade as well as by name. He has the rare distinction of being able to turn a verse or a table leg with equal facility.

While the Bulletin was ahead of Councillors in objecting to general legislation by the Provisional Government, it would not offer captious objections to a measure with a useful object, for the carrying out of which there may not exist administrative power. Such a measure would seem to be that granting a franchise for putting name signs on streets and numbers on houses. A representative of the firm seeking the privilege has incurred the expense of coming to the country, and asks for the privilege chiefly to enable his house to produce a directory more efficient than previous ones. As the bill to grant his request leaves the protection of public interests in the matter to the Minister of the Interior, in whose integrity and intelligence there is universal confidence, there is no reason why the little bill should not be made law. The Council has done a lot of law-making of questionable policy, and, even if the BULLETIN opposed this particular measure, its passage would hardly be a great enough affair to turn the P. G. lamb into a sheep.

FOREWARNED FOREARMED.

This issue contains the latest news of cholera in Russia. It shows that the pestilence has got an earlier start and a more widespread grip in that country this year than last. In conjunction with this intelligence, conveying as it does a menace to the whole world, we publish a statement of the California Board of Health as to measures of prevention that body is taking against a visitation. Individual and municipal Fook and Ah You. Conspiracy seccleanliness is the great requisite for ond degree. Creighton-Hartwell safety urged and, so far as possible, to be enforced by the California sanitarians. As the Pacific Coast is our nearest source of infection it is gratifying to note such a policy as being adopted over there. Months ago the Bulletin sounded a note of warning to the Hawaiian health authorities and public, urging the necessity of the most prompt and effective sanitation of Hono-

The Board of Health some time ago began to take action in having the city cleansed more thoroughly than could ever be accomplished by the ordinary routine of the scavenger's cart and the odorless excavator. In its more vigorous campaign against filth the Board finds the old difficulty in the Chinese quarter. Oriental obduracy and the obstruction of dense clusters of domiciles most difficult of access to sanitary apparatus are formidable obstacles to be surmounted. It is absolutely necessary, however, that these conditions shall be met and overcome with a resolute hand. While triumph over them will inure to the everlasting credit of the Board of Health, their degree and extent would never be accepted as an excuse for failure to carry out complete sanitation. At the same time, it must be remembered, the Chinese quarter is not the only locality that needs attention. Sanitation must be enforced from center to circumference of the city plot without fear or favor. Wealthy property holders who maintain slum tenement rookeries in any quarter must be made to "take their medicine" like everybody else.

We had quite made up our minds to ignore the question of the day in this column for various reasons, but, as the space in the Honolulu dailies is occupied largely by the Bveditors in moulding public opinion on the subject of politics and religion it is quite probable the readers of this paper would ignore our advertisement if we were to let pass the opportunity to "speak a piece." We do not intend to say that we know how the thing will be decided, we violate no confidence when we declare publicly through this column that we do not. We are not alone in this and we have no hesitation, no compunctions of conscience in telling you that we burned many gallons of mid- Corner Fort and Hotel Sts., night oil before we reached this conclusion. We doubt if Mr. Cleveland knows; we can imagine we see him sitting in his "nightie" after every one else in the family has retired, and petitions he has received from Honolulu, we can see his face brighten as he pores over the illuminated reasons why the Islands should be annexed and then spread out over his knees the memorial from the White patriots who request for as many reasons that the country be not toyed with. We can, in our mind's eye, see the flickering hope die out after he has waded through the various documents at hand and hear the echoes of every corner of the room allotted to the "first gentleman of the land" as a place of repose will take up the question and refer it to the judiciary committee, and there the memorials and petitions will curl up and die like the minority reports in the last Legislature. Mr. Blount will fix the thing in his own quiet way, just now he's the people. Those who do not dabble in paint are not aware that there has been a shortage of that article in this market for the past few weeks. The painter who has held back his work on account of not being able to secure a supply, may get all he wants from us by telephoning. By the "Australia" we received enough Pioneer White Lead to cover every building ings in Chicago in whiteness. We're bound to have a boom here as a result of the advertising the country has had, and the property owner who wants to sell or get increased rentals cannot do better than get their houses ready before the boom begins. When the carpenters and painters are engaged the prices will go up. Supply and demand governs the wages of the painter as in the case of every other branch of labor. Cut off the supply and let the demand grow and where are
